

Philadelphia Gain for Athletics

Champions Capture Both Games of Double Bill,
Beating Dolly Gray and Bob Groom.
Scores, 2 to 1 and 6 to 1.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Philadelphia, June 22.—The Athletics played their second bargain day offering of the season at Shibe Park today with Washington and captured both games. The first one was a pitchers' battle between Morgan and Gray, and resulted in a victory for the champions by 2 to 1. The second was also close for four innings, Washington giving a strong battle to the Athletics, but the Nationals began juggling the ball in the fifth and played poorly in the field, the Athletics piling up runs easily and winning by 6 to 1.

There was not very much to thrill the crowd of 15,000 which was on hand for the double offering, a couple of pretty running catches being the only features of the afternoon's extra session. Each game was played under the usual two-hour period, Washington delaying matters very little by getting on the bases. Morgan and Gray pitched splendid ball in the opening contest, the former allowing Washington only two hits, and but for a fumble by Collins in the sixth inning Washington would have been shut out. An error helped the Athletics to their first run, but the second was well earned by Danny Murphy's three-base swing to the left center field fence.

Walker Reached First.

Washington had a chance to talk in the fourth. With only one out, Walker reached first on a wild throw by Barry, and Elberfeld walked. Gessler hit a fly to Lord and McBride rolled to Collins.

The Athletics missed a couple of good chances before putting a run over in the third. Lord was hit by a pitched ball in the first inning, and was caught stealing second. In the second, with one out, McBride singled and was forced by Murphy, who stole second. Barry drew a pass and Thomas hit a home run to Milan.

With two out in the third Strunk hit down the third base line for two bases. Collins hit to Elberfeld and got a hit by the "Kid's" slow rolling. Baker rolled to Elberfeld and Strunk came in on the "Kid's" fumble. Collins tried to make the throw on the error and Milan threw him out.

McBride opened the fourth with a single and was doubled up off first when Murphy lined to Conroy. Barry and Thomas followed with singles, but on a mix-up of signals Thomas was caught between first and second and retired.

Milan tallied the tying run for Washington in the sixth, reaching first on a fumble by Collins. Schaefer sacrificed and the Athletics had a lead. Elberfeld hit a home run with a pitched ball and Milan scored on Gessler's single. In an attempted double steal Elberfeld was caught at the plate. He beat Barry's throw, but failed to touch the plate in sliding.

In the seventh, with one out, Conroy walked, stole second, and reached third on a passed ball. Alsmith fanned and Gray popped to Baker.

Athletics Win Game.

The Athletics won in their half. Murphy opened with a three-base drive and tallied when McBride missed Barry's grounder. The run would have scored anyway, as Thomas ripped a single to left. Morgan sacrificed, but Lord fanned and Gray tossed Strunk out a first.

In Washington's second half, Schaefer walked and stole second with only one out, but Walker fanned and Elberfeld bounced a easy one to Collins. Alsmith made the star play of the game in Morgan's eighth, catching a fly ball. Elberfeld's foul right off the Athletics' bench.

SECOND GAME.

In order to make victory sure in the second game, Manager Mack sent his "iron man," Jack Coombs, to the mound, and the big fellow made good by pitching the champions to victory. The Athletics gave Coombs a terrific support, though the clever twirling of Coombs left very little for the others to do.

Washington scored its only run in the first inning, when, after two were out, Walker singled, Elberfeld beat out a hit to Baker, and Gessler was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. A wild pitch sent Walker home. Coombs then fanned McBride.

Coombs allowed only four hits in the last eight innings, and only one man got as far as third and only three as far as second. Conroy began the second with a two-bagger. Street bunted a fly to McBride, and Groom and Milan were easy outs to the infield. Coombs fanned Gessler and McBride before Conroy made an infield hit in the fourth. Street ended by flying to Strunk. Elberfeld walked, in the sixth, and died stealing. Groom beat out the infield, Elberfeld singled, and after Milan fled to Collins, Schaefer singled. Walker again struck out and Elberfeld fled to Strunk. In the ninth, Coombs walked Gessler, sent him to second on a wild pitch, and then fanned

McBride and Conroy, Street ending the game with an easy one to Barry.

Great Catch by Walker.

A brilliant one-hand catch by Walker to deep left center robbed Collins of a possible home run in the first inning. Strunk was an first as a result of his single, and his rounded second before Walker made the catch, but Walker's poor throw prevented Strunk being doubled up. Baker was also robbed of a hit in this inning by Elberfeld's fine stop.

Groom held the champions safely until his support weakened in the fifth. McBride started this inning with a grounder, which was fumbled by Conroy. He stole second, took third on Street's wild throw and scored on Murphy's sacrifice fly.

Coombs' hit in the sixth bounded over Elberfeld's head. Lord laid down a sacrifice bunt. Strunk was thrown out by Elberfeld. Collins singled, scoring Coombs. Baker singled and went to third, when Gessler missed the ball, Collins scoring. McBride walked and was forced by Murphy.

Barry tripled in the seventh and was caught between third and home on Lapp's short roller to Groom. Lapp reached third while Barry was being run down and scored on Coombs' sacrifice fly. Lord singled and Strunk followed with a double, but Strunk was out trying to stretch his hit into a triple and Lord's run did not count, though there was a hot argument over it.

With two down in the eighth, McBride beat out a hit to Conroy. Murphy singled and both men scored when Milan first allowed the ball to get away from him and McBride dropped the return throw. Barry popped a fly to McBride.
